

Job Title	Langdon Brady Youth Services Sessional Worker
Salary	£8.72 per hour
Contract	Bank
Location	NW London
Responsible to	Youth Services Manager

Background

Langdon's Brady Club provides Jewish young people aged 9-25 with learning disabilities and autism the opportunity to meet new people, make friends, take part in fun activities whilst learning social and life skills in a safe, stimulating and engaging environment.

The sessional worker will be part of a team that enables young people aged 9-25 years with learning disabilities and autism to participate in a range of recreational activities ensuring that the needs of the young people are taken care of.

Young people at Langdon Brady are provided with a safe, caring and well-resourced environment to ensure their needs and wishes are taken care of. Langdon Brady engages young people through late afternoon/evening sessions and holiday schemes.

Job Summary

To work across a variety of different projects and help plan and deliver engaging 1:1 support and group workshops to young people with learning disabilities and autism.

To ensure that all our services continue to be carried out smoothly and in the best interests of the young people. The role will include the delivery of specific youth work projects and programmes delivered in accordance with the policies and procedures of Langdon, helping young people to develop personally, socially and educationally whilst empowering Members' independence.

Key Responsibilities

- Ensure Langdon delivers on its ambition by developing an exceptional Youth Service.
- Assist with the delivery of appropriate activities for young people.
- Establishing positive relationships with all young people, supporting and enabling them to increase their confidence and realise their potential, fully integrating them into all project activities.

- To contribute to effective teamwork between staff and volunteers, including attending team meetings, training sessions, and group practice supervision.

Meeting Diverse Needs

- Actively build and maintain relationships with parents and carers.
- Proactively build and maintain relationships with a variety of stakeholders including community groups, schools, synagogues and voluntary organisations.
- Write and review risk assessments and organise arrangements to attend external venues.
- Promote individual young people's learning and social development.

Young Person's Progress

- Responsible for accurate recording of young person's engagement and progress.
- Effective and timely reporting, ensuring Youth Services Manager is kept informed and updated on young person's progress (and / or any challenges).
- Know and understand how to assess different learning and activity needs.
- Ensure collection, analysis and reporting of young person's point of view.

Resources and Safety

- To welcome the young people at the beginning of the session and support them with the transition to go home at the end of the session.
- Responsible for reporting complaints, incidents and near misses.
- To clear up and clean the building and resources after sessions, leaving the space safe and tidy.
- To work at all times within Langdon's policies and procedures including Equality & Diversity, Safeguarding and Health & Safety Policies.
- To maintain confidentiality about the young people, in line with the safeguarding policy.

Cultural and Social Development

- To ensure Jewish Ethos and Cultural awareness is embedded within the Youth Service.
- Actively contribute to the Jewish culture that promotes community inclusion and maximises achievement and opportunities of young people.
- Take part in developing materials (digital and print) for activities and recreation.

Key Values

In addition to undertaking the duties as outlined above, the post holder will be expected to adhere to values of Langdon:

Excellence

To strive to be the best in everything we do by going the extra mile, paying attention to the small things and giving 100% effort and commitment every day.

Responsive

To positively challenge when things aren't right and be adaptable in a changing world to continue to grow and deliver our mission.

Integrity

To be honest, open and fair in everything we do, and deliver on our promises. (Trusted advisor).

Caring

To treat others how we would like to be treated with respect and kindness. (Put others first).

Empowering

To encourage our people to believe in their own ability and potential.

Equality & Diversity

To act in accordance with the organisation's Equality & Diversity Policy, which is designed to prevent discrimination of any kind.

Note

This job description outlines the roles, duties and responsibilities of the post. It is not intended to detail all specific tasks. Langdon reserves the right to alter the content of this job description to reflect the changing needs of the organisation, but is a correct reflection of the main duties of the post at the time of writing.

Acceptance

I agree to undertake the duties of the job in accordance with the above.
